

CITY MANAGER'S WEEKLY UPDATE

August 8, 2013

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

Hundreds of local residents participated in three separate national night out celebrations to bring neighbors together to help prevent crime. Residents were able to connect with each other as well as City Council members, city staff, police officer and volunteers. Those that attended enjoyed good music and free food!

TWIN CITIES ROAD ROUNDABOUTS AND WIDENING PROJECT

The ground breaking ceremony for the Twin Cities Road Roundabouts and Widening project is scheduled for Friday, August 16 at 11:00 AM. Additional program details are currently being finalized.

2013-2021 HOUSING ELEMENT

The Planning Department and Mintier and Associates will hold public workshops on August 8 for the 2013-2021 Housing Element. The afternoon workshop will include local stakeholders and the evening workshop will be held with the Planning Commission at 6:30 at City Hall. Another workshop is scheduled with the City Council on September 3.

CODE ENFORCEMENT

The Code Enforcement officer opened 35 new cases last month. Staff worked collaboratively with Animal Control to stop a possible pitbull dog breeding area in a residential neighborhood.

POLICE HIRING

Lieutenant Brian Kalinowski and Officer Jeffrey Weaver started work for the Galt Police Department on August 5.
