

CITY MANAGER'S WEEKLY UPDATE

January 7, 2016

BUILDING DIVISION

Mr. Pickle's was finalized on December 29 and is open for business. Elliott Homes is still building its Model Homes and has a few production homes starting construction as well at their River Oaks 3 development. Units within the KB Homes and Bennett (Jeanine Court) developments along Kost Road are also under construction.

OFFICER KEVIN TONN ANNIVERSARY

The third anniversary of the killing of Officer Kevin Tonn will be on January 15, 2016. The department Honor Guard will be laying a wreath at the memorial at 1200 sharp. The wreath is being purchased and provided by CHAMP. There will be no speeches or other activities other than the wreath laying. This is an opportunity to pay tribute to Officer Kevin Tonn, and take a moment to reflect. The public is invited to attend.

RECOVERED STOLEN MERCHANDISE

Officers foiled a potential robbery and returned over $3,000 worth of merchandise to Walmart and Rite Aid using interview skills, and living up to the Galt Police Department's mission statement of "Public Trust Through Professional Service". Their investigative skills resulted in two suspects being booked on multiple felony charges.
