

Chapter 10.31

USE OF VEHICLES FOR HUMAN HABITATION

Sections:

10.31.010 Use of vehicles for human habitation prohibited.

Section 10.31.010 Use of vehicles for human habitation prohibited.

It shall be unlawful and a misdemeanor, punishable pursuant to section 21.01.050, for a person to use or occupy or permit the use or occupancy of any motor vehicle, or trailer coach designed to be drawn by a motor vehicle, for human habitation, including but not limited to sleeping, eating or resting, either singly or in groups, on any street, park, beach, square, avenue, alley, or public way, or on any private property without the express permission of the owner of the property, within the city limits between the hours of ten p.m. and six a.m. "motor vehicle" means the use of a motor vehicle or trailer coach as a dwelling place, and shall not mean the use of a motor vehicle for alleviation of sickness or temporary physical inability to operate such motor vehicle. (Ord. 88-26 § 1, 1988).
