(UNA VERSIÓN EN ESPAÑOL DE ESTA CARTA ESTA DISPONIBLE CON EL DEPARTAMENTO DE OBRAS PÚBLICAS 495 INDUSTRIAL DRIVE, GALT, CA 95632)

You are receiving this notice because you either own or are the party responsible for paying a commercial refuse collection (garbage) bill for a parcel of property within the City of Galt. Recent State legislation is having a significant impact on waste collection, recycling, and disposal programs throughout the state. To address these challenges the City has negotiated a new long-term refuse collection agreement with California Waste Recovery Systems, LLC (Cal-Waste). Under the new contract Cal-Waste will be responsible for implementing new waste collection and processing programs needed to meet State mandates being imposed on cities and counties throughout the state. To pay for these new programs, it is necessary to increase refuse collection rates within the City. The following pages provide overview information regarding the proposed rate increases. For additional information about the proposed refuse collection rates, you may contact the Public Works Department at (209) 366-7260 or by e-mail at publicworks@ci.galt.ca.us or visit the City's website at www.ci.galt.ca.us.

Reasons for Increased Refuse Collection Rates

Over the past several years a number of new laws have been enacted that are significantly impacting how waste must be collected, recycled and disposed. Key examples of the regulatory changes include the following:

- Assembly Bill 341 (2011) – Set a statewide goal of diverting 75% of all waste produced away from landfill disposal by 2020. It also required jurisdictions to implement mandatory commercial and multi-family (5 or more units) recycling programs.
- Assembly Bill 1826 (2014) – Beginning in 2016 required businesses, public agencies and multi-family residential dwellings generating more than 8 cubic yards of organic wastes (including food waste) per week to utilize an organics recycling program. Effective January 1, 2017 the requirement was expanded to include entities generating more than 4 cubic yards of organic wastes per week. Effective January 1, 2020 the State Department of Resources Recycling and Recovery has the authority to further expand the requirement to include entities generating more than 2 cubic yards of organic wastes per week.
- Senate Bill 1383 (2016) – Sets statewide goals for reducing organics (green wastes, wood, food wastes, etc.) disposed in landfills by 50% (from 2014 levels) by 2020; and to further increase the reduction to 75% by 2025.

Meeting these mandates will require the development of new waste handling processes and changes to refuse collection programs. Further complicating local waste diversion and recycling efforts are the recent losses of major international recycling markets, as China and other nations are no longer accepting a majority of the reclaimed materials produced in the United States for use in recycled product manufacturing. This requires the development and utilization of expensive new collection, sorting, delivery and bio-recycling processes to meet the regulatory requirements. Failure to comply with the regulatory mandates can subject local communities to significant fines of up to $10,000 per day.

Basis for the Proposed Refuse Collection Rates

The City has an exclusive franchise agreement with Cal-Waste for the collection and handling of solid waste, including garbage, green waste, recyclable materials, food waste, and construction and demolition debris within the City. The proposed refuse collection rates are the result of an extended negotiation process with Cal-Waste. This process set forth the service levels and performance required by the City, for meeting the new diversion mandates outlined above, and identified the programs and related costs that would result. These costs were then allocated to each customer class (single family, multi-family and commercial) and service category (container size and frequency). To address the costs of meeting the mandates commercial refuse, organics and recycling collection rates will be increased over a two year period. The City hired R3 Consulting (R3) a consultant specializing in waste collection services to perform a detailed review of Cal-Waste's business plan and related costs for meeting the new waste diversion mandates. R3 also conducted a review of the proposed rates and a comparison between those proposed by Cal-Waste and other northern California municipalities that have recently entered into contracts to meet the waste diversion mandates. The proposed rates were found to be reasonable for the levels of service to be provided.

Proposed Commercial Collection Rates:

The tables on the following pages set forth the proposed rates for commercial refuse, organics and recycled material collection. For most commercial rates the increases will be spread over two years commencing February 1, 2019. After the initial fixed increases, rates will be adjusted annually each March 1st based upon the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers - Water and sewer and trash collection services index (WST Index), with the minimum annual increase being 1% and the maximum annual increase capped at 5%.

COMMERCIAL ORGANIC FOOD WASTE COLLECTION RATES

2/1/19 – 2/29/20

Beginning March 1, 2020, rates will be adjusted annually each March 1st based upon the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers - Water and sewer and trash collection services index (WST Index), with the minimum annual increase being 1% and the maximum annual increase capped at 5%.
